

“I am honored to be a board member for kidSTREAM. It is exciting to be part of a project that will provide a place in which every child will have the opportunity to explore and cultivate a passion for learning.”

Joe Borchard, Director
Parent, Leader, Professional Athlete, Volunteer

- Bachelor of Arts in History, Stanford University
- Global Sales Manager at Ventura Coastal, LLC
- Professional baseball player (White Sox, Seattle Mariners, Florida Marlins, and San Francisco Giants organizations)
- Silver medal winner, baseball, Team USA, 2001 World Cup in Taipei
- 2012 Ventura County Hall of Fame Athlete

Retired from professional baseball since 2011, Joe uses his coaching and leadership skills in his current role as global sales manager for an international sales team at Ventura Coastal LLC, a fruit processor headquartered in Ventura. An all-round athlete of baseball, football and basketball, Joe shares his love of sports, and its many learning opportunities, by coaching and assisting several youth sports teams throughout the region. Joe lives in Newbury Park with his wife Erin and their three children Ellie, Charlie, and George.

